“ James, Jimmy, was always a cute kid. Smiling and eager to please. His family (my sister) had problems when he was young. No money, a lot of kids, housing issues. But his mom and dad loved him no matter what. As a young man, like many of us, he had problems too. But, we serve a great God! A God who never gives up, a God who saves, a God who loves us all and waits patiently for his Children. So God lead James to Texas and to Walmart where he met Kristy, was married and was blessed with 3 wonderful children and most importantly found Jesus. We know that Jesus saves to the outer most. And so we can comfort each other knowing that James is only asleep and when the Lord comes again in glory, James will rise to meet Him in the clouds, and we, if we are faithful will join that happy crowd in the air. Let us pray for that reunion. I will miss my nephew, but by God's grace I will see him again along with his brothers, mom and dad. Blessings on each one of you.

“ James was my boss when I was a cashier at Walmart. He was always smiling and joking even when giving orders. My children have also gone to school Jonah and Jacey. To Jacey if you're reading this, Dylan says he is sending you hugs and knows how you feel as he lost his Dad a couple of years ago. Our family is praying for yours during this difficult time.
